THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Terrorism in a way helps unite the people of different countries, observed documentary maker Gouri Chadha. "Irrespective of culture, race and age, all want to weed out terrorism," said Chadha whose documentary 'Gawah- Witness' will be screened at the International Documentary and Short Film Festival of Kerala (IDSFFK).

'Gawah', which captures the grief of those affected by the 1947 India-Pakistan Partition, Mumbai terrorist attacks of 26/11 in 2008 and the July 13, 2011 serial blasts, will be screened on June 11. Gawah has won awards at Arizona Film Festival, Beverly Hills Festival and at Bhopal International Film Festival.

"Gawah was screened the day after Boston blast at Arizona Film Festival and the delegates were touched by the theme. One of them thanked me for reflecting their emotions," said Chadha.

Delhi-born Chadha has completed her film and theatre studies from the Historical University of Miami and the Met Film School at Ealing Studios in London. She was associated with Hollywood movie Mission Impossible- Ghost Protocol and Bollywood movie Gandhi of the Month, David, Love Break-up aur Zindagi.
